D105 – FÉVRIER 2019

Nothing can replace the presence of a loved one.
However, we hope that your tender memories will help ease your pain.

We offer you our most sincere condolences for the passing of

May our heartfelt compassion bring some comfort in your sorrow.

The Home Support Team

Mourning is a path that we must travel along during the loss of a loved one. It is extremely personal and everyone experiences it differently. However, if you or your loved ones find the path particularly difficult, please consult the documentation of bereavement resources in the folder you received from the CLSC nurse or call upon your CLSC for individual support.
